Jackson Visits District

Austin Jackson, one of the old-timers of White Pine county, and former secretary to Governor Oddie, was a business visitor in the district during the week. Mr. Jackson is now manager of the Nevada Press, and makes frequent trips to this section, which he says is the best in all the state.

"MR. GOODE, THE SAMARITAN"

Mr. Goode (DeWolf Hopper), a wealthy old gentleman, takes his wife and daughter, Evelina, out for a spin in their automobile, but throwing in the wrong lever the machine backs into the side of the road and burns up. They continue their journey on foot. Meanwhile, Foxy Monte, a polished crook, has stolen a beautiful car that has been left standing at the curb in a nearby town, and as he whizzes by he sees the Goode family. He stops and offers them a lift. And while the ride is continued, he persuades Mr. Goode to buy the roadster. Mr. Goode is so easy, in fact, that Monte determines to impose on him again.

The multiplicity of situations working up to a strong finish, makes this comedy a headline attraction at the Ely theater Tuesday night.

In From Sunnyside

James Riordan, the prosperous Sunnyside ranch and cattle man, accompanied by Mrs. Riordan, and two children, arrived in Ely on Friday and will spend a few days visiting with Mrs. Riordan's mother, Mrs. Margaret O'Hare, at the O'Hare home on Clark street.
